

Walter "Bud" Velie

November 7, 1941 - March 21, 2023

Walter "Bud" Velie, 81, passed away on Tuesday, March 21st, 2023 at Ghent Rehabilitation and Nursing Center in Ghent, NY.

Born November 7, 1941, in Hudson, NY to the late Walter Ellsworth Velie and Dorothy (Patton) Velie.

Bud graduated from Hudson High School. He married his high school sweetheart, Anna (Mac Dougall) Velie, and they had three daughters. Following her passing, he later married Beth (Burch) Colegrove. They had two sons together.

He worked for a textile mill and a local grocery store before working for ShopRite where he remained until his retirement in the late 90's to early 2000's.

Bud enjoyed telling jokes, fishing, hunting, bird watching, sitting by the river, old westerns, and the New York Yankees.

Other than his parents and his high school sweetheart, he is predeceased by his son, Walter Edward Velie, and his sister, Patricia (Velie) Fenoff.

Bud is survived by his four children, brother-in-law, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, a great-great-grandchild, and his niece.

There will be a private celebration of life for family and friends only. The family asks that in lieu of flowers, donations be sent to the Alzheimer's Association.
