“ Wayne was a wonderful kind and caring individual. He spent over 20 years as a tutor in the Migrant Education Program working in Columbia County. The students on his caseload looked forward to their time with Mr Weber. Not only did he support them academically he made sure they were taken care of at holiday time using agencies in the area and personal resources.

I am so sorry I can't be there to honor Wayne. My husband is undergoing cancer treatment and Friday is a treatment day. I will be making a donation to the Migrant Scholarship fund in his name. My deepest sympathy to all.

“ As I attended Christ Church and from time to time assisted the congregation as their priest and pastor, I recall Wayne as a faithful parishioner whose kind and gentle demeanor revealed his deep love for the Lord whom he worshipped and served. He quietly went about doing good so gifted in caring for others, sharing generously of his time without fanfare or in any way seeking the praise of others. An incredible act of charity was his disciplined devotion to praying regularly and frequently for the souls of the departed with the Guild of All Souls, for a time the Guild's only and remaining member at Christ Church. For him time spent in prayer with the Lord was precious and never considered wasted. Christ Church, her clergy and congregation, has been truly blessed by Wayne's presence over the years. May he now rest in the peace of Christ and rise in glory.
