“My condolences to Rosemary and the Colwell family. I remember the old Union street gang from St.Mary's Academy School. Our hang out was either the Colwell's house or the Hart's. I remember Bill and his brothers building the shed so they could have rabbits, and racing pigeons. I remember all of us going wild blue berry picking behind Allen St. in the woods and Bill and his brother Ed (Peanut) would make blue berry muffins. They would charge us 5 cents for one muffin for the cost of the flour mix and it was worth every penny. What great memories we had growing up with Bill on Union Street in the 50's. I thank God for meeting and knowing such a great person in my life. God Bless William Colwell”
