

William F. Egan, Sr.

January 27, 1911 - August 5, 2012

William F. Egan, Sr., 101 1/2 years old, passed away peacefully at his home on August 5, 2012.

Born in Hudson, NY, on January 27, 1911, he was the youngest son of the late Peter F. Egan and Catherine Dugan Egan. He was predeceased by his wife, Rose E. Gaschel Egan, and all of his siblings, Peter, John, Thomas, Joseph, James, Francis, Aloysius, Daniel, and Mary.

Bill graduated from St. Mary's Academy in 1930 and joined the Hudson Police Force in 1937. In 1939 William married Rose E. Gaschel.

Some of his significant accomplishments were Alderman, Chief of Police, Commissioner of Police, lifetime member of the Hudson Elks Lodge and the Hudson Moose Lodge, the PBA, Retired Chiefs of New York, and past president of the Golden Agers. He was also a parishoner of St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

William is survived by his sons, William (Rosemary) Egan of Clifton Park, NY, John (Rebecca) Egan of Claverack, NY, and James (Kate) Egan of Hudson, NY; his grandchildren, Tamara Egan, William (Kelly) Egan, Kristen (Evan) Bernockie, Mark Egan, Shannon Egan, Rachel (Hugo) Fernandez Davila, Sean (Eushabell) Egan, Abby Bensen, and Meghan Egan; and eight great-grandchildren, Nicholas, Rasheed, Emma, Kylie, Molli, Reese, Sean, and Liam. Also surviving is his friend and companion of several years, Evelyn Weaver.

Bill's favorite past time was spent raising and caring for his chickens and pigeons and being with his family.

The family would like to send a sincere and heartfelt thank you to the staff at Columbia Memorial Hospital and the doctors for their wonderful care, especially Dr. Daggett, Dr. Maben, Dr. Pearlstein, and Dr. Melamed and their caring dedicated staff. Also the wonderful people of Community Hospice of Columbia Greene. We will remember all of you in our prayers.

Visiting hours are 4-7 pm Wednesday at the Bates & Anderson - Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home.

A Mass of Christian Burial will be offered at 10 am Thursday at St. Mary's Church in Hudson.

Burial will be in Cedar Park Cemetery.
