

William Donald Ward

April 27, 1948 - August 16, 2014

William Donald Ward, 66, of Greenport, NY, died Saturday, August 16, 2014 at Columbia Memorial Hospital.

Born on April 27, 1948 in Kew Gardens, NY, he was the oldest son of the late Donald C. Ward and Anna "Bev" (Batewell) Ward. William is survived by his wife of 42 years, Patricia (Reamer) Ward of Greenport; his son, Michael Ward, and his wife, Kimberly, of Chatham, NY, and his daughter, Mindy Moore, and her husband, Terry, of Columbus Georgia, and three granddaughters, Mandy (age 13), Kali (age 7), and Allie (age 3). Also surviving are two brothers, Gary Ward, and his wife Genie, of Salt Point, NY and his youngest brother, Donald Ward, and his wife, Ann, of Greenport, and several nieces and nephews.

William moved to Hopewell Junction, NY in 1959 and then Greenport in 1990, where he proudly operated 923 Auto Parts from 1991-2001, and was co-owner of Ward's Auto Sales, Inc. He retired in 2012. William was an honored veteran, serving in the Vietnam War from 1968-1970 and received an honorable discharge and a rank of E4. He was also an active community member in his younger years. His services included a cub scout and boy scout leader, a member of the Mid-County Improvement Association from 1970-1990, and a member of the Hopewell Junction Elks Lodge. He will be loved and missed by many.

Calling hours are 2-4 pm and 6-8 pm Wednesday at the Bates & Anderson -
Redmond & Keeler Funeral Home, 110 Green Street, Hudson, NY, 12534.
