

Zachery J. Seyerlein

July 22, 1998 - April 15, 2025

Zachery J. Seyerlein, 26, of Stockport, NY, passed away on April 15, 2025.

Born in Albany, New York, Zachery was a proud graduate of New Lebanon Junior-Senior High School. In his younger years, he was a passionate racer at Lebanon Valley Speedway, where he found both thrill and community on the track, as well as his future wife. After stepping away from racing, Zach devoted his time to what mattered most—his growing family and his love for cooking.

Zachery was the beloved husband of Sarah Seyerlein and the proud father of Capri Seyerlein. He was also a devoted stepfather to Riley, Jayden, Bradley, and Lincoln Schwartz. Survived by his father Edward Seyerlein (Christina), mother Tammy Denué, sister AnnMarie Dempsey (Conrad), Billy Seyerlein, Abigail Seyerlein, step siblings Corey Houston, Kendra Greenway, and Christopher Houston. Grandmothers Marie Seyerlein and Ruth Denué. Also 2 nieces. Whether he was firing up his Blackstone grill or slow-cooking in his smoker, a family favorite, Zach found joy in feeding the people he loved. One of his favorite moments was dancing in the kitchen with Sarah, singing her old country favorites—something that brought warmth and laughter into their home.

Known by many as a natural comedian, Zach's lighthearted spirit, quick wit, and big heart made him unforgettable to everyone who knew him.

Details for services are still being arranged. A GoFundMe has been set up to help support the family during this difficult time and ease the burden of funeral costs.

Zach will be deeply missed, but the memories he created—with love, laughter, and a touch of mischief—will live on forever in the hearts of those who loved him.

Memorial visitation will be Wednesday May 7, 2025 from 4:00-6:00pm at the Bates & Anderson Funeral Home.

Like you said “we are the perfect puzzle pieces”. You gave me pure happiness, and our daughter. I will forever be grateful for our time. Thank you for giving me these last 2.7 years of your life. I love you so much Zach and will forever miss you. Until we meet again with your big arms open waiting for me with your huge smile.

Sarah, I have no words right now to even try to make you feel better because I know that pain so deep that you just feel like there's no way you can live without him. I have had to learn that you can not buy choice and pain most everything day but you just hold on to God as hard as it gets and somehow you have made it another day. Just know he is up in Heaven visiting loved ones that had gone before him and he is watching every minute and so proud of you for the woman you are taking care of all the children. He is with you in your heart and from above. He was just gone too soon but when the Master calls your name you will be ready and once you have met the master he is going to be standing right beside him waiting for you to run and jump in his arms and this time I for eternity!!! You will never be apart again!! That is what I have to tell myself all the time because grief is a bear and it attacks anytime anywhere. Just be kind to yourself and give your some grace because you have just been through the worst thing in your life and it is a lifelong journey. I will always be here for you support, listen, pick you up if I can or whatever you need me for I am here. I hope you feel God's loving arms wrapped around you tonight just holding you. You stay in my thoughts and prayers! Amanda Porter “ Zach was an amazing kid and I say kid because I met him when his father and I started dating 22 years ago. He had the biggest smile, kindest heart and amazing attitude. He loved playing backyard sports with his siblings, fishing, chopping wood with his dad hanging out with his family. He played high school volleyball and baseball and loved to go bowling. He made us laugh all the time. He was our family class clown. His biggest passion in life was when he was racing. He loved to work on his car with his dad, brother, uncles and cousins. When he raced whether he won or lost he came off that race track with a smile. We will miss him so much and a piece of our heart will always gone.

“ Zach
From day one I knew you were going to be an important person in our family. You made my daughter so happy and I believe you completed her. I can't thank you enough for always jumping to help and be there in any way for each and every one of us. Your daily goal was to please. I don't say this light Zach....I love you and will miss you more then words can ever say.
Again, thank you for just being you💔
